Bilderberg Members Discuss Killing Ron Paul

During a heated conversation in the lobby of the Westfields Marriott hotel yesterday, Bilderberg members expressed their desire to see Ron Paul die in a plane crash, according to veteran journalist Jim Tucker's inside source.

The shocking exchange took place just after Bilderberg attendees started arriving yesterday morning as they were driven through crowds of hundreds of Paul-supporting demonstrators.

Wasting no time to shoot their mouths off, one Bilderberg member expressed his desire to, "Get Ron Paul and all of his supporters on an airplane with a Muslim suicide pilot and take 'em down," according to Tucker's source, which has been proven routinely accurate with Bilderberg information in the past.

Bilderberg is furious that Paul is working to stop the full ratification of the Law of the Sea Treaty, which as we documented yesterday is being discussed at this year's conference. The treaty would hand the United Nations control over all U.S. oceans and force ships to pay a tariff directly to the global body.
